

ONE KILLED ANOTHER SERIOUSLY INJURED IN GALLUP RUNAWAY

Horses Became Frightened,
Bolted and Rig Upset;
Girl's Dress Catches On Fire
and She is Fatally Burned.

(Special Correspondence to Herald.)
Gallup, N. M., Nov. 2.—Tom Hordwell is dead and Gus Thompson in the hospital here as the result of a runaway of a team they were driving at Chaves one day last week. In driving over the crossing they had to pass between the two pumps. The animals they were driving were high-spirited and just as they got on the crossing one of the horses started blowing. The animals became frightened and ran away. The buggy hit a stump of a tree and was overturned. At first it was thought Hordwell was uninjured but a case of nerves, brought on by the shock of the accident, were too much for him and he died Saturday night.

While standing before a fire in her home at Ramah, Edith, the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Lewis, received such a severe burning that she died within a few hours. In some manner the little girl's clothing caught fire and before anyone could render assistance she was so badly burned she could not be saved.

O. B. Yetman, Democratic nominee for county surveyor returned last week from his vacation, which he spent at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

Five wagons, loaded with San Juan apples, arrived in Gallup Monday from Farmington. The freighters disposed of their loads to the merchants in a very short while. Before the advent of the D. & R. G. into San Juan county, the fruit growers of that section made this place a shipping point and hundreds of them came to Gallup to sell their crops. Only an occasional load reaches here now as it is much cheaper and easier to sell by way of the railroad.

Tom Kelly, a well known resident of Winslow, spent several days last week visiting friends here.

W. A. Van Mill of Crescent City was a Gallup visitor Friday and Saturday last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen McDonald of the Glison are the proud parents of a baby girl, born October 25.

Manuel Vigil, Major B. Ruppel, Col. Pritchard and H. J. Reynolds, all of Albuquerque, made an address at the opera house Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Brenkert of Winslow and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bergard of Albuquerque, sister of Mrs. Al. Mellinger are in Gallup.

Peter McSparran, an old time resident of Gallup, spent several days here last week visiting relatives and renewing old time acquaintances.

Gallup was visited by a heavy rain last week which lasted nearly three days.

IMPROVEMENTS IN SHEEP INDUSTRY INDICATED

(Special Correspondence to the Herald.)
Belen, N. M., Nov. 2.—During the past few months the range in this section of the country has been of exceptionally good quality, and as a result the sheep business in these parts is flourishing. It has seemed in the past few years that this industry was on the decline, but such is not the case, according to the appearances at the present time.

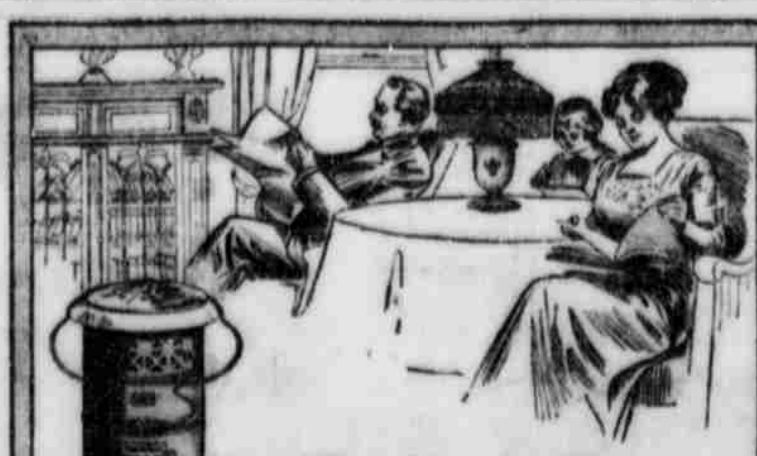

The officers of the Federal Livestock and Land company, a concern recently incorporated for the purpose of entering into the sheep business, report an excellent prospect for next year in sheep handling. The prices of spring lambs are soaring and the prospects are that they will be still higher before many weeks go by. For some time the price has been hovering around the $1.75 mark, but now it is considerably over $2.00, with prospects of reaching a still higher figure.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Lutheran church of Belen gave their annual Halloween supper in the dining room of the Hotel Belen Tuesday evening. During the evening a large number took supper there, and as a result they realized a considerable sum. The supper was in the form of an oyster supper, with all the usual side dishes.

Halloween was celebrated in a moderately quiet manner in and around Belen. A number of minor pranks were reported, but no serious damage was done.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. D. C. Newell Wednesday afternoon, there being a good attendance. The work on the various articles for the church bazaar, which will be held in December, is progressing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmundson of Denver, Colo., are spending a short time in the city. Edmundson is here in the interests of the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company, of which he is the western agent.

LEGAL NOTICES.

GENERAL ELECTION PROCLAMATION.

Notice is hereby given that a General Election will be held in the Territory of New Mexico and in the County of Bernalillo, on the seventh day of November, 1911. That at said General Election, officers will be chosen for the State of New Mexico; for members of the legislature of the state of New Mexico; for District and County officers and for Representatives in the 62nd Congress of the United States. That the officers to be voted for at said election are as follows:

State Officers.
One Governor, one Lieutenant Governor, one Secretary of State, one State Treasurer, one State Auditor, one Attorney General, one Superintendent of Public Instruction, one Commissioner of Public Lands, three Justices of the Supreme Court, three Corporation Commissioners, two Representatives in the 62nd Congress of the United States.

District Officers.
One Senator for the fifth Senatorial district, comprising the counties of Bernalillo, San Juan and Sandoval; one Senator for the seventh Senatorial district, comprising the county of Bernalillo; three Representatives for the third Representative district, comprising the county of Bernalillo; one District Judge and one District Attorney for the Second Judicial district, comprising the counties of Bernalillo, McKinley and Sandoval.

County Officers of the County of Bernalillo.
One Sheriff, three County Commissioners, one Treasurer and ex-officio Collector, one assessor; one county clerk; one superintendent of schools; one probate judge, one county surveyor.

There will also be voted upon one proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of New Mexico as provided by Act of Congress admitting New Mexico as a state into the Union, said proposed amendment being as follows:

ARTICLE XIX.
"Amendment."
"Section 1. Any amendment or amendments to the constitution may be proposed in either house of the legislature at any regular session thereof; and if a majority of all members elected to each of the two houses voting separately shall vote in favor thereof, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered on their respective journals with the year and day thereon."

"The secretary of state shall cause any such amendment or amendments to be published in at least one newspaper in every county of the state, where a newspaper is published, once each week, for four consecutive weeks, in English and Spanish when newspapers in both of said languages are published in such counties, the last publication to be not more than two weeks prior to the election at which time said amendment or amendments shall be submitted to the electors for their approval or rejection; and the said amendment or amendments shall be voted upon at the next regular election held in said state after the adjournment of the legislature proposing such amendment or amendments, or at such special election to be held not less than six months after the adjournment of said legislature, at such time as said legislature may by law provide. If the electors voting thereon such amendment or amendments shall become part of this constitution. If two or more amendments are proposed, they shall be so submitted as to enable the electors to vote on each of them separately; provided, that no amendment shall apply to or affect the provisions of Sections one and three of Article VII hereof, on elective franchise, and sections eight and ten of Article XII hereof, on education, unless it be proposed by vote of three-fourths of the members elected to each house and be ratified by a vote of the people of this state in an election at which at least three-fourths of the electors voting in the whole state and at least two-thirds of those voting in each county in the state shall vote for such amendment."

Sec. 2. Whenever, during the first twenty-five years after the adoption of this constitution, the legislature, by a three-fourths vote of the members elected to each house, or after the expiration of said period of twenty-five years, by a two-thirds vote of the members elected to each house, shall deem it necessary to call a convention to revise or amend this constitution, they shall submit the question of calling such convention to the electors at the next general election, and if a majority of all the electors voting on such question at said election in the state shall vote in favor of calling a convention the legislature shall, at the next session, provide by law for calling the same. Such convention shall consist of at least as many delegates as there are members of the House of Representatives. The constitution adopted by such convention shall have no validity until it has been submitted to and ratified by the people.

"Section 3. If this constitution be in any way so amended as to allow laws to be enacted by direct vote of the electors, the laws which may be so enacted shall be only such as might be enacted by the legislature under the provisions of this constitution."

Section 4. When the United States shall consent thereto, the legislature, by a majority vote of the members in each house, may submit to the people the question of amending any provision of Article XII of this constitution on compact with the United States to the extent allowed by the Act of Congress permitting the same, and if a majority of the qualified electors who vote upon any such amendment shall vote in favor thereof the said article shall be thereby amended accordingly.

"Section 5. The provisions of Section one of this article shall not be changed, altered, or abrogated in any manner except through a general convention as herein provided."
